Subject: Microsoft Settlement.

To whom it may concern;

I have been a user of Microsoft products for the last 8 years. I have used their products by my own choice, not by coercion or force. And if Microsoft gets broken up, I will lose that choice.

By putting any restraints on Microsoft's business, the quality of their products (i.e. Windows, Office, Internet Explorer) will decrease. That quality will not decrease due to a faulty business idea, or marketplace competition, but because of the involvement of the government.

We, the people, will make our own choices. And we, the people, will choose, through our own pocketbooks, to keep Microsoft in business, or if they should go bankrupt.

Sincerely,

Benjamin Hays
